

Short Biography:

Graham Thomas is a time served apprentice with City and Guilds qualifications, as well as the qualifications quoted. Graham worked at Skelmersdale Ford and then trained as a Consultant Motor Engineer with a specialist assessing company SAE (Specialist Assessors and Engineers. Graham is Director of vehicle examination services.

He has been a consultant motor engineer for 20 years dealing with engineering and assessing issues on a daily basis. He has in excess of 27 years experience in the motor industry. He is qualified to comment on technical matters by his vocational experience in the field and formal qualifications.

He is bound to act in a professional manner with utmost integrity and is subject to A.C.E. conduct rules, as well as complying with the Civil Prosecution Regulations and rules of association with the qualifying bodies.